WHO'S IN THE ROOM?

MEETING NORMS

Mission First – We ground all discussions and recommendations in our shared mission

Listen to understand – We value lived experiences, professional expertise, and community voice equally

Assume positive intent – We assume that all members are here to support students and families

Be solutions-focused – When raising concerns, we strive to offer possible solutions, clarifying questions or next steps

Respect time and voice – We honor start and end times and create space for voices by avoiding side conversations and interruptions.

FRC OVERVIEW

Overview: community-based facility that provides a range of support services to families.

An FRC can offer a variety of programs and activities that increase family engagement and enhance school-community ties.

Location: Glendale, 99th and Camelback

Target Date: Spring 2027

Mission: To equip students, families, and the community with the tools necessary to develop family well-being, resiliency, and self-sufficiency in the classroom and beyond.

Vision: We envision a community where every family has the tools and opportunities to flourish in education and society that will lead to positive social change for future generations.

The mission and vision statements were developed by the 2023 stakeholder committee.

FY26 FRC STAKEHOLDER COMMITTEE OBJECTIVE

This committee's role is to shape and inform. Input will be considered, documented, and used to guide decisions in pursuit of our mission.

Mission: To equip students, families, and the community with the tools necessary to develop family well-being, resiliency, and self-sufficiency in the classroom and beyond.
