- We are excited to share that several positive changes are on the horizon for the upcoming school year. As we honor and thank a number of dedicated staff members who are retiring or moving on to new opportunities, we are also looking forward to welcoming new talent and enhancing our programs. Among these updates, we are pleased to introduce a newly designed preschool program that will offer four-day-a-week classes for 4-year-olds, led by a highly qualified, Utah-certified teacher with a master’s degree in special education. Additionally, we have hired a local certified teacher to fill the opening in our dual immersion 1st and 2nd grade classroom. These updates reflect our ongoing commitment to meeting the evolving needs of all our students, and we look forward to sharing more details in the weeks ahead.
