Primary Title I Family Night

Hydetown Elementary will be hosting a "Stuffed Animal Sleepover" Title I Family Night for our 1st and 2nd grade students. This will take place on Thursday, February 12 from 6:00-7:30. Bring your stuffed animal bestie to school for a fun evening of literacy-based games, snacks, and activities. Leave your stuffed animal overnight so they can have a sleepover in the school! Photos will be taken through the night so you can see all the fun your animal has!

Additional Details:

- 1 stuffed animal per student between 6 and 18 inches tall
- If you do not have a stuffed animal or you forget yours that night, one will be provided
- Adults, please make every effort to bring your 1st/2nd grader without siblings. Thank you for understanding!

PTG Update

PTG officers have been planning our annual Benefit Walk. The date of the walk is Saturday, May 9. On February 3, all learners will receive information about the walk which is our only fundraiser. Learners will receive their Benefit Walk packets on Friday, February 13 and the packets need to be returned on Friday, February 20. The money raised through this fundraiser is used by PTG to support several opportunities for our learners including our end of year field trips, t-shirts for all of our students, awards for track and field day, Academic Olympics awards, and so much more. Please consider supporting our Benefit Walk.
