

Student Behavioral Matrix

HEART OF A REDSKIN

|                        | IN CLASS                                                                     | ON CAMPUS                                                                      | SCHOOL EVENTS                                                               | COMMUNITY                                                                           | INTERNET                                                                          |
|------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| HHard Work  | A Redskin...does his best on all assignments, projects, and presentations    | Actively helps maintain a clean and orderly campus, aware of school traditions | Gives his best effort in all contests and performances                      | Works to maintain a positive image of the school and it's students in the community | Produces quality work, adheres to accepted digital citizenship and behavior       |
| EExcellence | Organized, prepared, and punctual                                            | Models positive behavior at all times                                          | Performs his best and acknowledges effort in others                         | Behaves in a mature, polite, and respectful manner in the community                 | Does not engage in and reports unacceptable online situations                     |
| AAttitude   | Cheerful, honest, and cooperative                                            | Always follows rules and expectations                                          | Adheres to fair play, civility, and equalityCharacter Counts!           | Does the right thing in all situations                                              | Uses technology for appropriate purposes                                          |
| RRespect    | Treats teachers and classmates with respect                                  | Is polite and helpful to staff, students, and visitors                         | Treats opponents, other staff and spectators politely and respectfully      | Shows respect, kindness, and courtesy to community members                          | Shows respect for the opinions, feelings, and cultures of others                  |
| TTeam Work  | Effective collaborator and communicator, is helpful and supportive of others | Works with staff to maintain a positive, supportive culture                    | Constantly seeks to improve for the benefit of self and his fellow Redskins | Works positively with other students and community members                          | Expects same behavior and conduct when in communication/collaboration with others |