The second and final day of the 2025 MIAA Track and Field Meet of Champions took place on Sunday at Fitchburg State University, with Mohawk Trail's Chay Mojallali producing a big day in the boys high jump.

Mojallali hit a high mark of 6 feet, 4 inches on the day which earned him a share of second place overall. The jump was just two inches below his personal best. Shrewsbury's Derek Shimer was the MOC winner at 6-6.

Pioneer's Natalie Rios won the MIAA Div. 6 title in girls javelin and had another strong performance on Sunday, finishing with a top toss of 117-3 to take seventh place on the day. Teammate Louise Flagollet finished ninth in girls high jump with a top leap of 5-2.

Mahar's Stellina Moore earned an eighth place finish in girls pole vault with a jump of 9-6.

Frontier's Ben Cachiguango took first in the 110-meter hurdles at Div. 6 states but was unable to reach the final heat on Sunday, taking 19th with a time of 15.49 seconds. Fellow Redhawk Evan Hedlund placed 23rd in the boys mile with a time of 4:26.75.

The Frontier boys 4x800 team of Charles Dennis, Luke Howard, Gus Radner and Hedlund placed 22nd (8:37.33).
