Educational Rights- If you are currently experiencing homelessness, staying somewhere that is not fixed, regular, and adequate, or doubled up due to economic hardship, you and your child/children have additional educational rights under federal and state law including:

- ✓ Immediate enrollment in the school they last attended (school of origin) or the local school where you are currently staying, even if you do not have all the documents normally required at the time of enrollment.
- ✓ Continue to attend their school of origin, if requested by you and it is in the best interest.
- ✓ Receive transportation to and from their school of origin, the same special programs and services, if needed, as provided to all other children, including free meals and Title I.
- ✓ Receive the full protections and services provided under all federal and state laws, as it relates to homeless children, youth, and their families. If you checked any box above other than living in a single-home residence, please complete Part B of this Housing Questionnaire (back page) in order to determine what additional educational services you or your child/children may be eligible to receive.

If you have any questions about these rights, please contact the District Homeless Liaison, Corey Hansen, by phone at 661-248-6680 Extension 200 or by email at chansen@el-tejon.k12.ca.us El Tejon Unified School District
