RESOLUTION FACILITATOR

- Title IX does not mandate the Resolution Facilitator to be or not be any particular person. This role can be filled by someone who has another Title IX role.
- When choosing the Resolution Facilitator, keep in mind that this is similar to mediation. A mediator is independent.
  - Good practice, if possible, is to try to avoid appointing the Investigator or the Decision Maker as the Resolution Facilitator due to their roles in this process should the parties decide to return to the grievance process.

SCHOOLS LEGAL SERVICE 9

TITLE IX EMPHASIZES:

Due Process:

Was it a fair and just process?

SCHOOLS LEGAL SERVICE 10

WHAT TITLE IX DOES NOT DO:

- Interfere with any other constitutional right
- Allow FERPA to avoid obligation to comply with Title IX
- Derogate any rights under Title VII
- Derogate any rights a parent or guardian has to act on behalf of child
  - "If it would be 'clearly unreasonable in light of the known circumstances' for the recipient not to notify a parent or legal guardian of reported sexual harassment that affects that parent or guardian's student, the school must notify the parent or guardian of the Title IX matter."

    OCR Questions and Answers Regarding the Department's Title IX Regulations, January 15, 2021
  - May conflict with transgender student's right to confidentiality
- Allow state law to alleviate obligation to comply with Title IX

(34 CFR 106.30(a))

SCHOOLS LEGAL SERVICE 15

DEFINITIONS

Sexual Harassment (con't.):

- People have a variety of responses to sexual harassment. Title IX does not require any type of manifestation of trauma.
- OCR addressed this in the Q&As issued on September 4, 2020:
  - "The 106.30 definition neither requires nor permits school officials to impose notions of what a 'perfect victim' does or says, nor may a recipient refuse to respond to sexual harassment because a complainant is 'high-functioning' or not showing particular symptoms following a sexual harassment incident."
  - "No concrete injury is required to conclude that serious harassment would deprive a reasonable person in the complainant's position of the ability to access the recipient's education program or activity on an equal basis with persons who are not suffering such harassment."
- There are two other basis for filing a Title IX complaint:
  - Recipient's treatment of a complainant or respondent in regard to a complaint
  - Retaliation

SCHOOLS LEGAL SERVICE 16

HYPOTHETICALS

- Jane and John dated for two months. Jane reports that John is constantly waiting for her at the school's entry, follows her to class, asks her friends about her, and has sent threatening messages to her on Snapchat. John has now threatened to post a naked photo she sent to him while they were dating.
- Same facts, but it is Mark and John that have dated
  - Mark and John have dated for six months. A custodian, who knows that they were dating, observes them get into an argument and Mark punches John.
- Student reports that her teacher told her that if she sent him a photograph of her in a bathing suit, she would get an A in the class and would be one of the starters for the basketball team.
  - Jane reports that Mark, the captain of the football team, told her that if she sent him a nude photograph of herself, he would make sure that she was on the cheerleading team.

SCHOOLS LEGAL SERVICE 17

DEFINITIONS

- Actual Knowledge:
  - Notice to Title IX Coordinator
  - Notice to any official recipient who has authority to institute an investigation/corrective measure
    - "The mere ability or obligation to report sexual harassment or to inform a student about how to report sexual harassment, or having been trained to do so, does not qualify an individual as one who has authority to institute corrective measures on behalf of the recipient." (34 CFR 106.30(a))
  - As to Elementary and Secondary: Any employee with knowledge
    - Students are required to be online at various time, watch for inappropriate activity: online harassment, stalking, human trafficking, Zoom bombers, etc.

    - Vicarious Liability: Legally liable for actions of another
    - Constructive Notice: A legal fiction that a person received notice even though they did not actually receive it (i.e., notice to a party for certain types of legal actions that left the state, can give notice in an approved newspaper)
    - What this Means: Even though you should have known, if you did not actually know, it is not "actual notice" if notice is solely based on one of these principals.
  - The only official of the recipient with actual knowledge is the respondent

(34 CFR 106.31(a))

SCHOOLS LEGAL SERVICE 19

DEFINITIONS

- Standards of Evidence:
  - Preponderance of the Evidence: It is more likely than not that the allegations are true
  - Clear and Convincing Evidence: Evidence is of such a convincing force that it demonstrates a high probability that the allegations are true. A higher standard than preponderance of the evidence.
  - Must use the same standard for both students and employees
    - Employees are entitled to preponderance of the evidence during discipline investigation

- Employee: Statute does not preclude administrative leave for a non-student employee, but follow Education Code, collective bargaining agreement, and BP/AR.

(34 CFR 106.44(d))

SCHOOLS LEGAL SERVICE 27

EMERGENCY REMOVAL OF STUDENTS PROCEDURE

- May remove a student respondent from the education program or activity if:
  - Recipient performs an individualized safety and risk analysis;
  - Determines that an immediate threat to the physical health or safety of any student or other individual justifies the removal; and

SCHOOLS LEGAL SERVICE 29

SPECIAL EDUCATION CONSIDERATIONS (CON'T)

- Supportive Measures: Likely will need to be addressed in IEP
  - Change placement, change in schedule, counseling, etc.
  - Do supportive measures trigger IDEA or 504?
- Emergency Removal: If disabled student is the accused, a manifestation will be required if emergency removal is more than 10 days.
  - It will always be more than 10 days because the process takes 20 plus days to complete, excluding an appeal.
  - Only exception would be "serious bodily injury" exception that would allow 45 days.
- Can you use the misconduct data to support a change in placement?

SCHOOLS LEGAL SERVICE 30

HYPOTHETICALS

LABOR CONSIDERATIONS

  - National Labor Relations Board has ruled that an employer has a right to order employees to abide by confidentiality rules during an open investigation. (Apogee Retail LLC d/b/a Unique Thrift Store, 368 NLRB No. 144 (2019))
  - Rule only applies to Title IX investigations
  - Recommendation: Request, not order, that the employee abide by confidentiality

SCHOOLS LEGAL SERVICE 33

LABOR CONSIDERATIONS (CON'T)

  - Should advise that will keep information confidential to the extent possible
  - Never promise that you will not disclose information given during investigation

(Nazir v. United Airlines, Inc. (2009))

SCHOOLS LEGAL SERVICE 34

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

Each district must adopt a grievance policy that includes the complete process to be followed if the district has notice of sexual harassment or a Title IX complaint is filed.

PRINCIPLES OF GRIEVANCE PROCESS

- Treat complainants and respondents equitably
- An objective evaluation of all relevant evidence, including inculpatory and exculpatory evidence
- Credibility determinations are not to be made based on status of complainant, respondent, or witness
- Those involved in the investigation cannot have a conflict of interest
- Presumption that the Respondent is not Responsible: Presumption of innocence

CONFLICT OF INTEREST/BIAS

- Conflict of Interest: Occurs when a person has a personal interest (whether actual, potential or perceived) that conflicts with the interests of the investigation
  - Either the complainant, respondent, or witness is related to the investigator or decision maker
- Bias: Allowing a personal feeling or past dealing affect your judgment
  - Belief that all football players are liars and get away with everything so that they can play football

SCHOOLS LEGAL SERVICE 37

HOW TO AVOID CONFLICT/BIAS IN YOUR TITLE IX PROCEDURE

- Don't allow past behaviors by a party or feelings towards a party affect your judgment
- Focus on the evidence, not your feelings about any party or issue
- Avoid showing that you agree or disagree with either party or that you're on their side or not on their side
  - "Yes, I agree." "I understand what you are going through."
  - "In my opinion this is not sexual harassment, you're overreacting." "She's overreacting."
- Don't allow wishes of others (administration) to affect your judgment, focus on the evidence

SCHOOLS LEGAL SERVICE 38

HYPOTHETICALS

- Your son's friend is the respondent
  - Your son's best friend that is at your home at least once a week is the respondent
- The respondent's parents previously filed a complaint against you
- You have previously punished the female complainant for smoking marijuana with a boy in the bathroom after school
- You believe that for years the boys on the football team have gone unpunished for bad behavior

SCHOOLS LEGAL SERVICE

DELAY FOR GOOD CAUSE

- Temporary delay of the grievance process or limited extension of time frames for good cause are allowed
  - Must provide written notice to the complainant and respondent of the delay and reasons for the action
  - Good cause may include (illustrative list in 34 C.F.R. § 106.45(b)(1)(v)):
    - Absence of a party, a party's advisor, or a witness
    - A concurrent law enforcement activity
    - Need for language assistance or accommodations of disabilities
- COVID-19: OCR COVID-19 Guidelines issued September 28, 2020, allowed for reasonable delays due to COVID-19. While we are back to full-time, in-person school with no restrictions, people still get it and must quarantine making the person unavailable.
  - Be more specific than delay due to COVID-19
  - Example: Witness could not be interviewed due to quarantine

SCHOOLS LEGAL SERVICE 40

NOTICE REQUIREMENTS AFTER FILING OF FORMAL COMPLAINT

Once receive formal complaint, must provide written notice to the known parties of the following:

- Recipient's grievance process

  - All hearings
  - Investigative interviews
  - Meetings
- Written notice must be given with sufficient time for the party to prepare to participate

(34 CFR 106.45(b)(5)(v))

SCHOOLS LEGAL SERVICE 43

WHEN A FORMAL COMPLAINT MUST BE DISMISSED

- Conduct does not constitute sexual harassment even if proved
  - "severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive."
- Conduct did not occur against a person in the United States
- Conduct did not occur in the recipient's education program or activity
  - Social media and school required online activity
  - Independent Study

(34 CFR 106.45(b)(3)(i))

SCHOOLS LEGAL SERVICE 44

WHEN A FORMAL COMPLAINT MAY BE DISMISSED

- Complainant notifies the Title IX Coordinator, in writing, that he/she would like to withdraw complaint.
- Respondent is no longer enrolled or employed by recipient
- A specific circumstance prevents the recipient from gathering sufficient evidence to reach a determination
- Inconsistency: The regulation does not qualify, in any way, the ability to dismiss a case at request of complainant when it involves a teacher/employee or when employee is no longer employed. However, a complaint cannot be handled by informal resolution if a teacher/employee is the respondent.

(34 CFR 106.45(b)(3)(ii))

(34 CFR 106.45(b)(4)

SCHOOLS LEGAL SERVICE 47

THE INVESTIGATION

SCHOOLS LEGAL SERVICE 48

DETERMINING RELEVANT EVIDENCE

- The final Title IX rule does not define relevance
- Does not adopt the Federal Rules of Evidence for hearings
  - May not adopt rules that contravene those evidentiary requirements prescribed in 34 C.F.R. § 106.45
  - For example, the Preamble to Title IX states that a recipient "may not adopt a rule excluding relevant evidence whose probative value is substantially outweighed by the danger of unfair prejudice; although such a rule is part of the Federal Rules of Evidence."
    - Similarly, it also states that may not adopt rules excluding relevant evidence, such as lie detector results and rape kits.

(Preamble to Title IX, pp. 980-82)

- There are three types of evidence that is deemed irrelevant by the Rule:
  - A party's treatment records without consent
  - Information protected by a legally recognized privilege
  - Complainant's prior sexual history

SCHOOLS LEGAL SERVICE 49

RELEVANT EVIDENCE (CON'T)

- Some types of evidence that is generally excluded from a criminal trial cannot be excluded from a Title IX investigation: unfairly prejudicial evidence, evidence concern bad acts, or evidence that constitutes character evidence.
- Decision maker has discretion in considering evidence: Title IX "does not prescribe rules governing how admissible, relevant evidence must be evaluated for weight or credibility by a recipient's decision maker, and recipients thus have discretion to adopt and apply rules in that regard, so long as such rules do not conflict with section 106.45 and apply equally to both parties."

(Preamble to the Title IX Rule, at pp. 980-82)

  - You may decide the weight or credibility to give to any particular evidence as long as that rule is applied equally to both sides
  - Each side must be given the opportunity to argue the weight and credibility the decision maker should give to each piece of evidence

SCHOOLS LEGAL SERVICE 50

HOW DO I DETERMINE WHAT WEIGHT TO GIVE EVIDENCE?

- Was the person offering the evidence credible?
- How is the evidence relevant to the issues?
  - Does it go to a party's credibility?
    - Did that person have any motive for coming forward?
  - Does it tend to prove or disprove a material fact?
- How many levels of hearsay?
  - Hearsay: A statement, reported by another person (not the declarant), offered to prove the truth of the matter asserted
    - Example: Jane testifies, "Mary told me that John slapped her."
- Does it tend to show the respondent has committed similar acts in the past?

SCHOOLS LEGAL SERVICE 51

HYPOTHETICALS

- Samantha files a complaint alleging that Mr. Smith, her PE teacher, makes comments to her about her physical appearance every day and tells her he wishes she was 18. Mr. Smith presents evidence that Samantha lied earlier in the year about why her homework in a different class was not completed.
  - Mr. Smith presents evidence that two months prior, Samantha falsely reported that a student named Mark had slapped her buttocks during PE class.
- Sally files a complaint alleging that Tom has been verbally sexually harassing her and that it has caused her to have severe anxiety prior to class. Tom seeks to gain access to her therapy records that show she had been treated for severe anxiety the prior year.

SCHOOLS LEGAL SERVICE 52

REQUIREMENTS OF INVESTIGATION OF FORMAL COMPLAINT

- Burden of proof and gathering evidence rests on the recipient, not the parties
- Cannot access or consider a party's records maintained by any treating professional unless the party or parent, if minor, consents

(34 CFR 106.45(b)(5)(i))

- Cannot restrict the ability of either party to discuss the allegations or ability to gather and present relevant evidence; no "gag order" may be issued

(34 CFR 106.45(b)(5)(iii))

SCHOOLS LEGAL SERVICE 53

REQUIREMENTS OF INVESTIGATION OF FORMAL COMPLAINT

- Must provide an equal opportunity for the parties to present:
  - Fact or expert witnesses
  - Inculpatory Evidence: Incriminating evidence, tends to prove guilt
  - Exculpatory Evidence: Exonerating evidence, tends to prove not guilty

(34 CFR 106.45(b)(5)(ii))

- Investigation by law enforcement does not nullify obligation to complete Title IX investigation; must still complete investigation.
  - Consider how you want to work with law enforcement
  - Do not depend on whether or not charges were filed in making your determination of responsibility as law enforcement uses a different standard.

SCHOOLS LEGAL SERVICE 54

RIGHT TO INSPECT EVIDENCE

- Provide opportunity for each party to inspect any evidence obtained; includes evidence from each party or any other witness
- Must include evidence do not intend to rely on
- Must include inculpatory and exculpatory evidence
- Must allow meaningful time to respond

SCHOOLS LEGAL SERVICE 55

THE INVESTIGATION

- Statements of complainant, respondent, and witnesses
  - Whether or not to record interview
    - May NOT secretly record
  - Decide order of interviews
  - Use words that the witness uses
  - Is what the person reporting age or ability appropriate?
- Review prior discipline and reports of incidents
  - Be mindful of any privacy concerns – only look where you are allowed to look
- Surveillance cameras at location
- Social media of those involved
- Notes/letters/photos of those involved. Most likely electronic, such as cell phone, iPad, computer, etc. Be sure to consider search & seizure rules

SCHOOLS LEGAL SERVICE 56

THE INVESTIGATION (CON'T)

- Photographs:
  - Area of occurrence
  - Those involved: Damage to clothing, injuries, etc.
  - Only photograph what you have consent to photograph
- Schedules and attendance of those involved, including witnesses
- Any evidence going to credibility of any witness
  - Motive to Lie: Did teacher recently give student bad grade? Did student respondent recently break up with student complainant?
  - Has person been dishonest in the past?
- If involves student, contact parents – anything relevant going on at home?
  - Consider any confidentiality issues prior to contacting parents

SCHOOLS LEGAL SERVICE 57

SEARCH AND SEIZURE

- The Fourth Amendment protects an individual's justified expectations of privacy against unreasonable government intrusions.
- Consent: "Consent searches are part of the standard investigatory techniques of law enforcement agencies' and are 'a constitutionally permissible and wholly legitimate aspect of effective police activity."
- Caveats: Must be informed and voluntary.
  - Submission to Authority: Consent is not voluntary if the student is acquiescing to a show of authority.
  - Examples: A student's consent to search after it was expressed or implied that the search would be conducted with or without his consent is involuntary.
    - "You don't have anything in your pockets you don't want me to see, do you?"
    - (Negative response)
    - Followed by: "Then you wouldn't mind me looking, would you?"
    - Will invalidate consent.

SCHOOLS LEGAL SERVICE 58

SEARCH AND SEIZURE

- The legality of a search of a student depends on the reasonableness of it. This requires a twofold inquiry:
  - Was the search justified at inception?
    - Under ordinary circumstances, a search of a student by a teacher or other school official will be "justified at its inception" when there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that the search will turn up evidence that the student has violated or is violating either the law or the rules of the school.
  - Was the search permissible in scope?
    - A search will be permissible in its scope when the measures adopted are reasonably related to the objectives of the search and are not excessively intrusive in light of the age and sex of the student and the nature of the infraction.

SCHOOLS LEGAL SERVICE 59

SEARCH AND SEIZURE

Scope of Search (con't):

- Cal. Ed. Code §49050:
  - No school employee shall conduct a search that involves:
    - (a) Conducting a body cavity search of a pupil manually or with an instrument.
    - (b) Removing or arranging any or all of the clothing of a pupil to permit a visual inspection of the underclothing, breast, buttocks, or genitalia of the pupil.

SCHOOLS LEGAL SERVICE 60

INTERVIEWS

- If involves potential criminal conduct, do not have to advise a student of Miranda rights (Fifth Amendment right to remain silent). Miranda only applies if a peace officer is conducting a custodial interrogation designed to elicit an incriminating statement.
- Know who the complainant, respondent and witnesses are
  - Rapport Building
    - Do not be immediately confrontational
- Ages/grade level
- Understand the person's mental capabilities – determine if in special education
- Is investigator bilingual or need an interpreter?
- Recognize that the act might appear minimal to you as the investigator, but that it was extremely traumatic to the complainant.

SCHOOLS LEGAL SERVICE 61

INTERVIEWS (CON'T)

- Ask open ended questions
  - Can ask direct questions to clarify
- Avoid promises, oral agreements, and coercion
- Use the words that the person your interviewing uses

SCHOOLS LEGAL SERVICE 62

TRAUMA INFORMED CARE

- Trauma: An event, or series of events, that overwhelms the central nervous system
  - Trauma occurs when one's ability to defend, protect or say no is overwhelmed
  - Trauma is what occurs when your solution (active response to threat) does not work
    - Empoweringeducation.org
- It is about considering/treating the whole person, not just the immediate incident
  - Ask "What happened to you?" Do not ask, "What's wrong with you?" "What's wrong?"
- Key concepts to speaking with a person using trauma informed care:
  - Safety
  - Trustworthiness
  - Choice
  - Collaboration
  - Empowerment
    - Office for Victims of Crime, Training and Technological Assistance Center

  - Same student reports that the classmate was showing her videos of sex acts on his phone.

EMPLOYEE RIGHTS DURING INTERVIEW

- Weingarten Rights: If it reasonably appears employee could be subject to discipline, employee has right to have union representative present.
  - Representative cannot be intrusive or unduly adversarial
- Employee that is mere witness to events and non-suspected of being culpable do not typically have Weingarten right unless required by personnel rules, collective bargaining agreement or past practice.
- Spielbauer Warning: If the employee invokes their Fifth Amendment right to remain silent, he or she can be ordered to answer questions. The statements may not be used in a criminal proceeding, but may be used in a discipline proceeding. Must give a Spielbauer warning:
  - You do not have a right to refuse to answer these questions. Should you refuse, you may be guilty of insubordination, an offense that can and will lead to discipline up to and including termination. Any information you provide to us, however, will not be used against you in any criminal proceeding.

    - Will Miranda apply?
  - Investigative techniques

SCHOOLS LEGAL SERVICE 67

- Evidence of a complainant's sexual history is generally not relevant and should be excluded
  - Examples:
    - She had sex with Sam, therefore, she had consensual sex with John.

- Evidence can be considered if it is directly relevant to an issue
  - Examples:
    - Complainant previously consented to an act with respondent, therefore, he/she consented during the current incident (state of mind).
    - The evidence will explain an injury the complainant has or other evidence.
- Title IX specifies the only two conditions that sexual history may be asked:
  - Someone other than respondent committed the act
  - Specific incidents between respondent and complainant to prove consent

(34 CFR 106.45(b)(6)(ii))

SCHOOLS LEGAL SERVICE 68
