

LABBB TRANSITION FAIR 2026

Thursday April 9th from 6-8PM at Grace
Chapel Lexington

The goal of this event is to give the LABBB community access to and information about Transition Resources

An evening with over 30 exhibitors

Thursday April 9th from 6-8PM at Grace Chapel in Lexington 59 Worthen Rd, Lexington, MA 02421

There is a LABBB dance for high school and middle school students from 6:00-8:00 PM at the Lexington community center. A shuttle bus will be provided for those who would like a ride over to Grace Chapel.

Please join LABBB Collaborative for a Transition Fair with over 30 Exhibitors.
Information on family support, adult agencies, vocational services, employment support, recreation and supported housing will be available- with representatives from each of the agencies.

Over 30 registered agencies:

Department Of Developmental Services (DDS)

Berkshire Hills Music Academy

Partners for youth with disabilities

Special Needs Arts Programs, Inc.

Bridging Independent Living Together, Inc.

Opportunities for Inclusion

RISE Scholars

Carelon Behavioral Health

Walnut Street Center

Minuteman Arc Human Minuteman Arc Human Services
Gateway Arts
Federation for Children with Special Needs
3LPlace
Bedford Recreation Department
Institute for Community Inclusion/ UMass Boston
Best Buddies
Commonwealth Financial Group
TILL, Inc. - Toward Independent Living and Learning, Inc.
Empowering People for Inclusive Communities (EPIC)
MBTA Mobility Center
Northeast Arc
Beaverbrook STEP, Inc.
Grow Associates
Autism Society of Massachusetts
Children's Occupational Therapy and Associates
Inclusive Fitness
My Special Legal Planning, PC
Curry College
Lesley University
Viability, Inc
Eliot Community Human Services.org
Riverside Family Support Center